Dear Dr. San Antonio:

The National Commission for Culture and the Arts, in cooperation with the Department of Education will once again offer the First Phase of the Teachers' Scholarship for Graduate Diploma in Cultural Education (GDCE) this Summer 2018. The program is a two-summer, 24-unit post-baccalaureate in-service teacher enhancement program nationwide.

GDCE offers foundation and major courses to enhance the students' understanding of the basic theories, processes and application of arts, culture and heritage in the culture-based teaching of the basic education curriculum. Students who complete the program are qualified to proceed to its masteral level, which is also open to scholarships application.

Colegio de San Juan de Letran Calamba is the Higher Educational Institutions (HEIs) tasked by the NCCA to implement the program in Region IV-A since 2010.

We are inviting your teachers to apply for the scholarship grant. Successful applicants to the program will be entitled to benefits including free tuition plus stipend. The first half of the program, consisting of 12 units in 24 days, will be implemented from April 23 to May 19, 2018.

We have attached the following relevant documents for interested applicants:

1. GDCE Program Information and Admission Requirements
2. GDCE Official Nomination and Endorsement Form
3. Individual Participant's Application Form

Submission of application for scholarships is from March 12 to April 10, 2018. The list of successful scholarship beneficiaries will be released on the April 16, 2018. For inquiries, applicants may reach us through:

Graduate Diploma in Cultural Education PROGRAM SCHEDULE AND ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The Graduate Diploma in Cultural Education is a two-summer 24-unit post-baccalaureate program divided into Graduate Diploma in Cultural Education Levels I and II which offers foundation and major courses to enhance the students' understanding of the basic theories, processes and applications of arts, culture, heritage in the culture-based teaching of the basic education curriculum. Courses to be taken are as follows:

Summer 2018 – Level 1

CPCE 013 – Pedagogy of Cultural Education (April 23-28, 2018; 8AM-6PM)

The course focuses on the study and teaching of culture across the basic education curriculum through interdisciplinary learner-centered approaches. The course enables the students to analyze the nature, types, and scope of Philippine cultures for enhanced knowledge and informed instruction.

CPCE 033 – Re-view of Philippine History and Heritage (April 30-May 5, 2018; 8AM-6PM)

The course revisits and critiques prevailing constructions of Philippine history and heritage to reveal lost, unknown, silenced and undocumented local history with emphasis on reliable data.

CPCE 023 – Cultural Diversity and Languages of the Philippines (May 7-12, 2018; 8AM-6PM)

The course explores the concepts of cultural diversity, beliefs and values systems of various Philippine ethnolinguistic groups and communities through discussions and analyses of notions of "race", ethnicity, and the functions of language in cultural development and construction of knowledge and world views from a Filipino perspective.

CPCE 043 – Philippine Arts (May 14-19, 2018; 8AM-6PM)

This course is a study of Philippine Arts through a process of creation, analysis, and review of Philippine "aesthetics", and history, themes and perspectives towards enhancing the creativity/imagination, critical thinking and culture-based orientation and skills of the teacher participants.

Summer 2019 – Level 2

CPCE 053 – Local Cultural Mapping

CPCE 063 – Media-Based Cultural Documentation

CPCE 073 – Issues in Cultural Education
